

Top 10 Cafes to visit in Delhi during Valentine's Day

Delhi couples, looking for the perfect cafes to stop at during your romantic Valentine's Day bike ride? Well, you're in luck because India's capital has an abundance of dreamy cafes that are perfect for cozy coffee dates or refreshing snacks between riding landmarks.

Take your pick from these 10 delightful Delhi cafes I highly recommend visiting on your V-Day bike rental in Delhi.

1. Big Chill Cakery

Start your cafe crawl right by getting a bike on rent in Delhi near Big Chill in Khan Market. Their red brick walls, pretty hanging lights, and nostalgic memorabilia exude cozy retro vibes. Share a creamy slice of chocolate cake or rum ball as you plan your bike route for the day.

2. Connaught Place Cafe Coffee Day

In the heart of CP, this CCD outlet has a lovely terrace with dreamy string lights – perfect for people watching over coffee. Try their signature cold coffee or green tea frappes as you take in views of bustling Connaught Place. You can visit Connaught Place without any hassle with the help of a bike rental in Delhi.

3. Cha Bar

Make a quick pitstop mid-bike ride at Cha Bar in Connaught Place to recharge with authentic Indian chai. Sip comforting adrak or masala chai on their artsy terrace or inside among quirky decor.

4. Triveni Terrace Cafe

Escape the city rush on Triveni's relaxing open-air terrace surrounded by greenery. It's right near scenic spots like Lotus Temple and Lodhi Gardens – ideal for a light-bite post-bike ride. Their sandwiches and shakes are amazing.

5. Big Yellow Door

Make your way to Big Yellow Door in Karol Bagh for the ultimate romantic vibes with a vertical garden, swing chairs, and dreamcatchers. Their menu matches the whimsical decor – think heart-shaped pizzas, pink lattes, and chocolate fondue.

6. The Living Room Cafe

In funky Hauz Khas Village, The Living Room has an artsy indoor space with mismatched furniture, books, and board games. Order their thin-crust pizza and grab a cozy corner seat for quality time chatting over coffee.

7. Rose Cafe

This Insta-famous Saket cafe is filled with roses, candles, curtains, and floral decor – ideal for lovebirds! Their grilled sandwiches, garlic bread, and pizzas pair perfectly with their rose latte.

