

Caprice Resources Discovers Visible Gold at WA Project - colitcoaa

Caprice Resources has reported the discovery of visible gold during drilling at its Western Australian project. The significant find has prompted the company to expand its drilling program to further explore the project's potential. This discovery marks a promising development for the company, highlighting the prospectivity of the region and its potential for resource growth.

Read More