

Caprice Resources Discovers Visible Gold, Expands Drilling in WAaa

Caprice Resources

has announced the discovery of visible gold during recent drilling at its project in Western Australia. This significant find has led the company to expand its drilling efforts in the area to better understand the full extent of the mineralization. The discovery is seen as a promising step toward advancing the project and potentially unlocking further gold resources.

Read More