Varieties of White Marbles

- Orchid White Marble

Orchid White Marble is a breathtaking choice for those who appreciate the beauty of natural stone. This marble variety is characterized by its milky white background, adorned with delicate, intricate gray and purple veining that resembles the petals of an orchid flower.

- Opal White Marble

Opal White Marble is another gem in Tripura Stones' collection. This marble variety is prized for its pure white base with subtle gray veins that add a touch of depth and character to its appearance. Opal White Marble exudes a timeless charm that can effortlessly complement both classic and contemporary design styles.

- Indian Crema White Marble

Indian Crema White Marble is a classic choice that reflects the elegance of Indian craftsmanship. It features a creamy white background with occasional light brown and gray veining, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

- Imperial White Marble

If you're looking for a white marble variety that exudes grandeur and sophistication, Imperial White Marble should be on your radar. This opulent marble boasts a striking white background with bold gray and gold veining, creating a regal and majestic appearance. It's often used in high-end projects where the goal is to make a statement.
