

David Beckham comes to enjoy Messi's goal. Inter Miami tops MLSaa

On the morning of March 30 (Vietnam time), Messi returned to play for Inter Miami. The Argentine star came off the bench for just 2 minutes and immediately scored to help his team defeat Philadelphia Union 2-1. Mr. David Beckham was extremely excited.

Messi has scored 5 goals and had 2 assists in just 6 matches for Inter Miami since the start of the 2025 season.

Messi's return in the match between Inter Miami and Philadelphia Union has dispelled many concerns about his fitness and recent injury problems. However, coach Mascherano was careful, only using him in the second half.

Just returned, Messi immediately scored for Inter Miami just 2 minutes into the match.

Messi's condition also made Mr. David Beckham, President and co-owner of Inter Miami, quite worried and came to watch the day the famous player returned to the team. He was really satisfied and excited when Messi entered the field at the beginning of the second half, played extremely well and immediately scored.

In the 55th minute, coach Mascherano brought Messi on to replace striker Robert Taylor, who opened the score 1-0 for Inter Miami in the 23rd minute after a beautiful assist from young player Cremaschi. Just 2 minutes on the field, Messi immediately made the fans in the stands at Chase Stadium explode with joy, when he scored to make it 2-0 after a tricky cross-angle shot with his right foot from Suarez's pass.

Outside the stadium, David Beckham jumped up and celebrated enthusiastically after Messi's goal. This was the 39th goal scored by the Argentine star for Inter Miami since coming here to play (July 2023), the most in the history of the team, far surpassing the record held by

