

Southwest Group Travel policies

Do you want to book your group travel on Southwest. You should know about the latest group travel policies before you move further. SkyGoAir is the best platform to get all details about group travel policies.

Southwest knows the requirements of the travelers regarding group booking, so it allows a variety of groups to be booked. You can book your group tickets in many ways, as mentioned in the below information. In this article, we will discuss everything associated with Southwest group travel.

What Does Group Travel Mean On Southwest?

Suppose you are traveling under a group of ten or more passengers, then your booking will be considered a group reservation as per Southwest. Moreover, you will be able to enjoy the various kinds of Southwest group travel discounts and even add the various services to your booking under the group travel program. There are no restrictions for the group passengers, but many groups are involved under the program as mentioned below:

- School Groups
- Religious Groups
- Family Groups
- Sports Groups
- Friends Group

Simply dial 1 (800) 435-9792 for the domestic route and 1-860-364-8556 for the international route. You will connect with the live representative when you dial the number, who will assist you in booking your group travel.

Terms & Conditions of the Southwest Airlines Group Travel Policy

Flyers need to understand the guidelines designed by Southwest for passengers wishing to travel with a group. Besides, it will enable you to avoid any hassle with the lowest Southwest Airlines group travel rates.

- Make sure that the group tickets offered by the airline are totally non-refundable.
- However, these tickets cannot be eligible for upgrades, changes, exchanges, standby, or downgrades.
- Besides, the airline does not provide any paper documents for the group reservation as the booking details will be provided electronically.
- You can use PayPal, UATP, credit cards, and wire transfers to make the payment for your group travel.
- However, you can only use credit cards when you opt for deposit payments.
- Similarly, you cannot use gift cards, flight credits, LUV vouchers, and eChecks to pay for

