

Your Guide to Transitioning from Local Area Coordinator to Support Coordinatoraa

In the ever-evolving landscape of disability support services, the role of Local Area Coordinators (LACs) has been pivotal in connecting individuals with the right resources and support. However, as the need for more personalised assistance grows, many are considering the transition to a dedicated NDIS Support Coordinator for a more tailored and comprehensive approach. Read more

Read More