

Jutify: the next revolution in sustainable fashionaa

More and more consumers are switching to sustainable options for their daily needs. We believe in order to build a wider consumer base these days, it is essential to take into account the environmental concerns that are plaguing our society. One important way to do this is to eliminate plastics in your daily use. But you may wonder how that is possible when every trip to the supermarket or the local one for that matter involves using plastic bags
