

Canada Increases Invitations in Recent IEC Draws

Under the International Experience Canada (IEC) program, Canada continues to deliver to younger guests. Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) invited 1,768 people to apply for IEC open Canada work permits in the recent draw from June 3 to June 9. This article pulls the latest, the number invited, the invitation a they are distributed in every country and are well understood.

Exploring the Latest Draws

From June 3 to June 9, Canada demonstrated its commitment to attracting global talent by inviting a number of nominations. With 34,016 people waiting for pool invitations as of June 9, demand to participate in the IEC program remains strong.

Breakdown of Invitations by Country

The dispersion of invitations demonstrates the extensive reach of the IEC program, as candidates from diverse nations receive Invitations to Apply (ITAs) for open work permits.

Distribution of invitations in each country

The distribution of invitations reflects the global reach of the IEC program, with applicants from different countries receiving Invitations to Apply for Open Task Authorizations (ITAs) Below are the number of ITAs allocation to specific countries.

All annual ITAs

In 2024 alone, Canada has granted a total of 85,147 ITAs under the IEC program. This means a commitment to attracting world-class individuals to grow Canada's economic and cultural fabric. Recent attractions by IRCC underscore Canada's active position in recruiting international talent through the IEC program. By inviting diverse candidates, Canada reaffirms its reputation as a welcoming destination for young professionals seeking attractive employment and travel opportunities. As the process unfolds, candidates can expect greater opportunities to participate and contribute to Canada's diverse inclusion society.

Book a canada immigration consultants Call us +1(647)-704-7640, +9195068-95074

<https://migratorimmigration.com/canada-increases-invitations-in-recent-iec-draws/>

Read More

