

how we can share text online with a short urlaa

To share text online with a short URL, you can follow these steps:

1. Choose a URL shortening service: There are several URL shortening services available online, such as justpaste.in Shortener. Choose one that suits your needs.
2. Copy from somewhere and enter the new text you want to share: Copy the text you wish to share online. It could be a message, a paragraph, an Image, a File, HTML, or any other type of text content.
3. Open the URL shortening service: Visit the website of the URL justpaste.in you selected in step 1.
4. Paste the text: Locate the text editor field on the justpaste.in a website w, paste the text you copied in step 2.
5. Generate a short URL: Click on the “Create” button on the website. The justpaste.in will convert your text into a short URL.
6. Copy the short URL: Once the short URL is generated, copy that URL and share with anyone. Copied URL will be available on your clipboard.
7. Share the short URL: You can now share the short URL with others through various means, such as email, social media platforms, or instant messaging apps. When someone clicks on the short URL, they will be redirected to the original text content you shared.

Keep in mind that some URL shortening services may have limitations on the length of text they can process, so if you have a very long text, you need to use always justpaste.in justpaste.in is free forever with unlimited content sharing. This is the free tool to share text online, share html code online and share file online.

Read More