

Discover the Best Sherwani Styles for Grooms This Seasonaa

The sherwani isn't just a wedding outfit — it's a legacy. For Indian grooms, it's the single most symbolic piece of their wedding wardrobe. At Rajwada by Rama Sarees, we honour that symbolism with a collection that redefines elegance, comfort, and craftsmanship for today's groom. If you're looking for the best sherwani styles for grooms in Lucknow, you'll find them right here in our Patrakarpuram store.

Every sherwani at Rajwada is thoughtfully designed, taking into account the significance of the occasion and the evolving preferences of modern grooms. While we offer timeless ivory and gold sherwanis with Zardozi and Resham embroidery, we also curate contemporary options in slate, wine, emerald, and navy — shades that appeal to the groom who wants to stand apart while staying rooted in tradition.

We believe that a sherwani must do more than just look royal. It must fit flawlessly, allow ease of movement, and complement every element of the groom's ensemble — from the footwear and stole to the turban and brooch. That's why our sherwanis are crafted using premium fabrics like pure silk, brocade, and velvet, and finished with in-house custom tailoring.

Our team works closely with each groom to help build a look that feels authentic. Whether you're preparing for a grand wedding or an intimate mandap, Rajwada ensures you find a sherwani that matches both your personality and the moment.

Read More