

The vibrant colors in the clouds and the electric energy create a fantastical scene.

The vivid colors in the clouds, ranging from deep purples to bright neon pinks, create a dreamlike atmosphere. A massive bolt of electric energy descends from a mushroom-shaped cloud, illuminating the landscape below with electric energy. The sky is filled with clouds that swirl around, as if a cosmic storm is brewing. In the distance, a river snakes through the land, offering a calm contrast to the storm above. The entire scene feels like a mix of fantasy and science fiction, with an ethereal glow that enhances the mystical ambiance.
