

Mischief Led the Boys to a Hard Lesson. Remember, Actions Have Consequences!

In a moment of mischief, the boys decided to steal chickens from the neighbor's coop, but their plan quickly unraveled when they were caught red-handed. As they fled, the furious neighbor gave chase, hot on their heels.

Their laughter, mixed with fear, echoed through the streets as they dashed away, leaving a trail of feathers in their wake. But despite their quick getaway, the boys soon realized they couldn't outrun the consequences of their actions.

