A remarkable structure that resembles a mosque, beautifully crafted from what appears to be greens or plants. The domes and minarets are intricately detailed, recreating the architectural style of traditional mosques.

Two children are seen kneeling in front, seemingly engaged in some activity involving the structure, adding a lively touch to the scene. The setting appears to be an open field, emphasizing the contrast between nature and human creation. The entire composition is both mesmerizing and a testament to the crafters' craftsmanship.
