OUIDEN State Mannors top NOA Valuations at OSYO.ODN: aa

The National Basketball Association's (NBA) Golden State Warriors have seen their franchise ?????t?o? increase by 14 per cent over the past 12 months to US$8.8 billion, as they topped Forbes' latest rankings for a third successive year.

The Golden State Warriors' recent Forbes ?????t?o? places them as the second most valuable U.S. sports franchise, surpassed only by the NFL's Dallas Cowboys. The Warriors'annual ?e?e??e reached an ?m??e???e $800 million, inclusive of central league income and adjusted for arena-related debts and ?e?e??e sharing obligations. This ?e?e??efigure puts them among a very exclusive group globally, matched by only a few other sports franchises, including the Cowboys, Real Madrid, Manchester City, and Barcelona.

In the NBA, all franchises are currently valued at a ?e?e??e multiple exceeding ten, with the