

Kudos to the Florida police and firefighters for their heroic rescue of an eagle stranded on a busy road!

It was the only way she could get the help she needed.

One eagle became a showstopper yesterday morning, unintentionally bringing together a cavalry of emergency workers, police officers and a wildlife rehabilitator.

Police and firefighters arrived on the scene to respond to a female eagle sitting in the middle of a major roadway near a mall in Clearwater, Florida.

