

Bleeding Gums That Won't Stop? Act Quicklyaa

Occasional bleeding while brushing is common, but excessive or persistent gum bleeding may indicate an underlying infection or trauma. It can also be a sign of advanced gum disease or a medical condition needing attention. NW Emergency Dentist offers fast diagnosis and care to prevent further damage. If your gums are bleeding without reason, especially alongside pain or swelling—don't wait. Get checked right away.

Read More