

Rangers Sitting Jacob Trouba Amid Trade Discussions

New York Rangers defenseman and team captain Jacob Trouba will not be participating in the upcoming Friday night game against the Pittsburgh Penguins, with sources confirming to ESPN that the decision is due to “roster management purposes.” This comes as the Rangers are actively looking to trade the 30-year-old defenseman, who has been an integral part of the team since joining in 2019.

Read More