

ANZ Appoints Nuno Matos as New CEO, Succeeding Shayne Elliott

Australia and New Zealand Banking Group (ANZ) has announced the appointment of Nuno Matos as its new chief executive. Matos, a seasoned international banker, will succeed Shayne Elliott, who will retire in July 2025.

Portuguese-born Nuno Matos, 57, brings extensive global banking experience to the role. His career spans over 30 years, with positions in Peru, Brazil, Mexico, and Hong Kong. Matos most recently served as HSBC's Global Head of Wealth and Personal Banking. He will relocate from Hong Kong to Melbourne to lead Australia's fourth-largest bank.

Read More