

Vietjet Launches Hanoi-Kuala Lumpur Route, Strengthening ASEAN Ties

Vietjet has officially launched its new direct route connecting Hanoi and Kuala Lumpur, further enhancing economic, cultural, and tourism ties between Vietnam and Malaysia. The inaugural ceremony, held during Vietnam's General Secretary To Lam's official visit to Malaysia, marks a significant step in fostering regional connectivity.

Vietnam's General Secretary To Lam, along with high-ranking delegates from Vietnam and Malaysia and Vietjet's leaders, perform the ceremony to inaugurate the new Hanoi-Kuala Lumpur route

This new service aligns with Vietnam and Malaysia's recent elevation of bilateral relations to a comprehensive strategic partnership, paving the way for greater collaboration and development between the two nations and across Southeast Asia.
