

Special Inspections NYCaa

In NYC, special inspections are required for certain construction projects to ensure they meet building codes.

These inspections include checking structural components, fireproofing, and electrical systems. By identifying issues early, special inspections can prevent major delays or safety concerns. Hirani offers thorough special inspections, ensuring that your project is compliant with city regulations and built to meet the highest safety standards.

Read More