

The Bull Collapses Under the Weight of a Giant Snake

In a recent scene, a large bull was seen carrying an enormous snake on its back, struggling under the weight of the serpent's massive body.

The snake, with its long, coiling form, clung tightly to the bull, its scales glistening under the sun. The bull, clearly exhausted and terrified, struggled as it tried to shake off the unwelcome guest. Passersby watched in shock and disbelief, unable to comprehend the bizarre interaction between the two creatures.
