

New Year's Savings Resolutions: Easy Ideas To Save Money In January

Reading Time: 7 minutes

Every year, most people make some kind of New Year's resolution. Some of the resolutions help people grow personally, while others are made to help people end up better financially.

The problem is when you set a lofty goal without a plan for how you're going to accomplish the resolution. Large goals are harder to stick with and easier to become discouraged with.

This is why I'm recommending smaller New Year's resolutions, specifically small changes you can make in your life that will save you money. Small changes done over time will equate to huge habit changes that become ingrained.

New Year's Financial Resolution Ideas That Will Save You Money With Little Effort

No more falling off the wagon! This year, resolve to set your finances on the right track.

These 10 New Year's savings resolutions will give you ideas on ways to easily save money.

1. Go Through Junk

The first thing you can do is go through old junk. Most of us have a lot of random items sitting around that we don't really use.

Instead of leaving them to take up space, go through them and see if you can sell them. It might take a little while to get someone to buy it, but there's a pretty high chance that it will get sold.

If it's something that would qualify as a hobby, you can try to sell it to specific stores that deal with those types of items. Other items can be posted on social media marketplaces.

Pretty much if you price it right, it will sell. If all else fails, you could try having a garage sale!

2. Set Up a Budget

It might not seem like it would save a lot of money, but another great way to save money is to set up a budget and stick to it. Seriously, you'll feel like you've been given a raise once you tell each dollar where to go!

There isn't really a one size fits all budget since everyone has different situations, but you should sit down and make a budget that works best for you.

You'll want to write down every bill you have and how much each one is. This will give you a good idea of exactly how much of your money is going out.

Worry about the things that are important first, like the rent or utilities. Take care of your "4
