

Wizkid's "Dance" Mysteriously Disappears from Apple Music Top 100aa

Wizkid's latest single, "Dance", has vanished from Apple Music's Top 100 chart, sparking widespread speculation among fans and music enthusiasts. The song, which was released on November 15, 2024, had initially reached the number one spot on the Apple Music Nigeria Top 100 chart, only to mysteriously disappear.

The sudden disappearance of "Dance" from the chart has fueled rumors of possible streaming manipulation penalties or a technical glitch on Apple Music's end. Apple Music has been known to crack down on streaming manipulations, imposing penalties on artists who engage in such practices. However, some fans are speculating that the disappearance might be a technical error.

"Dance" is the second lead single from Wizkid's upcoming album, "Morayo". The album has been highly anticipated, and the disappearance of "Dance" from the chart has left many wondering if it will affect the album's overall performance. Fans are eagerly waiting to see if the song will rebound back to its previous chart-topping position, which would suggest a technical glitch, or if Apple Music has indeed imposed penalties for streaming manipulation.
