

Renowned Music Composer Jude Nnam Kidnapped in Anambraaaa

Famous Christian music composer Jude Nnam, also known as 'Ancestor,' has been kidnapped in Umuunnachi, Anambra State.

Nnam, National Music Director for the Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN) and member of the National Liturgical Commission, Catholic Secretariat of Nigeria (CSN), was abducted on Thursday evening around 6 p.m.

The music icon had traveled to Anambra for a church function.

Catholic priests Rev Fr Augustine Mario and another clergy confirmed the kidnapping on their Facebook pages, calling for prayers for Nnam's safe release.

Nnam recently celebrated his 50th birthday anniversary and ministered at the 'Unusual Praise 2024' in Onitsha.
